

Shiloh Terrace Baptist College/Seminary Scholarship First-Time Application

Scholarship Application and Requirements:

First-Time Applicants

- All first time applicants must have:
 1. A current photo attached to the application.
 2. Submit a completed application by the required deadline.
 3. Submit an official transcript or copy of most recent grade report or college online grade report.
- Applicant must be on current Sunday School roll at Shiloh Terrace Baptist Church.
- Applicant must have active involvement at Shiloh Terrace Baptist Church or at a church near the applicant's college campus.
- If necessary, the scholarship recipient may choose to have his/her scholarship award deferred to the spring semester. However, if it is determined the scholarship award will not be utilized in the spring semester; the money set aside for that applicant will remain in the Shiloh Terrace Scholarship Fund.
- Applications must be turned into the church office no later than 5:00 p.m. Monday, April 4, 2011 for the 2011-2012 terms.
- Applicants may be subject to an interview.
- All applications must be complete and submitted by deadline for consideration.
- All information will be kept confidential.

Scholarships will be awarded based on the following criteria:

- Plans to enroll in an institution of higher learning as a full-time student
- Current college students must have at least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average
- Church and Campus Involvement
- Grade reports/Transcripts
- Completed Application Information

Funds granted will be sent to the appropriate school. No money will be given directly to the student.

Scholarships are not automatically renewable therefore must be submitted on a year-to-year basis.
